Why do we handle your personal data?

The handling of personal data by the Organization has several purposes, depending on your relationship with the Organization's companies.

Thus, we present below, in a non-exhaustive list, the main hypotheses in which we will handle your personal information:

- For the performance of services, products and other contracts or preliminary diligences:
 - for the provision of services of the Organization's companies, such as banking services, investments, insurance, financing, consortia, cards, health care plans, private pension plans, among others;
 - for the relationship and provision of information related to the products and services engaged by the the Customers of the Organization.

- If the companies of the Organization must comply with any legal or regulatory obligation:
 - compliance with legal obligations, such as, but not limited to, resolutions, circular letters, normative acts, communications from competent bodies (for example: National Monetary Council, Central Bank of Brazil - Bacen, Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission - CVM, Superintendence of Private Insurance – SUSEP, National Private Insurance Council, National Health Agency, among others) which define, for example: (i) security measures to prevent abuse and fraud; procedures for detecting transactions that deviate from normal standards; (iii) recording, when necessary, of phone calls, emails, chats; (iv) anti-money laundering and terrorism financing.

- For the legitimate exercise of rights in judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings:
 - in carrying out complaint receipt processes in the Customer Service;
 - receiving and preparing responses to complaints submitted to the Brazilian Consumer Protection Agency (Procon);
 - in the storage of information for defense in judicial, administrative or arbitration proceedings.

- In pursuit of the legitimate interest of the companies comprising the Organization, always within the limits of their expectations, and never to the detriment of their fundamental interests, rights and freedoms:
 - in building and evaluating the profile of its Customers, to offer customized products that are compatible with their needs;
 - This can be achieved, for example, by (i) analyzing their habits and preferences in the several channels of interaction with the companies of the Organization, (ii) sharing data with other companies of the Organization, especially when you are a Customer or prospect of that other entity;
 - in the implementation and development of our products and services;

- in the implementation of statistics, tests and evaluations for the elaboration and inquire of surveys, feedback collection and solutions development, aiming at the management and assessment of business risks, the improvement and/or creation of new products;
 - in cases of a complaint, when the Organization is mentioned on social networks or specific platforms, with the purpose of resolving the issue claimed, as well as of adopting the necessary measures to resolve the situation in the best possible way.
- To guarantee your security in the processes of identification and registration authentication in our electronic systems and in performing activities aimed at preventing the occurrence of fraud;
 - For protecting the credit granted or to be granted by any of the Organization's companies:
 - in the calculation of credit scores, being able to share and/or consult scores in credit bureaus to feed and subsidize the analysis of credit risk profile for customers or prospects.
 - Through authorization granted by you, such as in the following processes:
 - sending indirect marketing of third party products;
 - in relationship with the Customers of the Organization, when the activity involves sensitive personal data.

Minors' data

We may collect and handle personal data of minors in cases where they are dependents, beneficiaries or customers, always in the best interest of these data subjects and in compliance with the guidelines of Federal Law 13,709/2018 [Lei Geral de Proteção de dados Pessoais (LGPD)].

The Personal Data of children [those under the age of 12 (twelve) years] are collected and handled with specific and highlighted consent by at least one of the parents or legal guardian, and are used to ensure continuous access to the services and products offered by the Bradesco Organization.

The child's personal data (such as name, date of birth, gender, SSN (CPF), identity card (RG), health data, nationality and address) are processed by the Bradesco Organization in accordance with the purpose agreed by a parent or legal guardian, which may be used for the operationalization of products/services, compliance with and management of regulatory, institutional, legal and fraud prevention demands.

It is also worth highlighting that the Bradesco Organization does not use data from minors for marketing and/or offering products and services.

Children's personal data may be collected without their consent when:

- the collection is necessary to contact the parents or legal guardian, and such data may be used only once and without being stored; or
- when collection is necessary for the protection of the data subject (child).

Moreover, in no case can data be transferred to a third party without the specific and prominent consent given by at least one of the parents or legal guardian.

With whom do we share your personal data?

The Organization will sometimes need to share your personal data with third parties. The situations that will involve sharing your information are the following:

- with partner companies and suppliers, in the development and provision of services made available to you, provided that they are duly approved by the Organization's security processes;
- with government entities or other third parties, including using sensitive personal data, whose purpose is to identify and authenticate registration processes and to prevent fraud;
- with authorities, government entities or other third parties, for the protection of the interests of the Organization in any type of conflict, including lawsuits and administrative proceedings;
- in the case of corporate transactions and operations involving the Organization, in which case the transfer of information will be necessary for the continuity of services; or

- by court order or upon the request of administrative authorities that have legal competence for that request.

Personal data may also be shared with some of our partner companies located abroad, whose countries are affiliated with the Central Bank of Brazil.

How do we keep your personal data safe?

Any personal data held by the Organization will be stored in accordance with the strictest security standards adopted by the market, which includes the adoption of measures such as:

- protection against unauthorized access;
- restricted access of people to the place where personal information is stored; and
- adopt procedures so that agents, Employees or external partners that handle personal data are committed to maintaining the total confidentiality of information, adopting the best practices for handling this data, as provided for in the corporate policies and procedures.

In addition to technical efforts, the Organization also adopts institutional measures aimed at protecting personal data, so that it maintains a governance and privacy program adopted to its activities and governance structure, which is constantly updated.

No transmission of information is fully secure, as it will always be susceptible to technical failures, malware and/or similar actions. In this sense, the Bradesco Organization endeavors its best efforts to preserve your privacy and protect your personal data.

In any case, in the remote event of incidents of this nature, the Organization guarantees it will endeavor its best efforts to remedy the consequences of the event, always ensuring due transparency to you.

How long will we store your personal data?

Personal data handled by the Organization will be deleted when it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected, or when requested by you, except in the event of the need to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation, transfer to a third party - respecting that data handling requirements - and the exclusive use of the Organization, including for the exercise of its rights in judicial or administrative proceedings.

What are my rights as a personal data subject?

In compliance with the applicable regulations, regarding the personal data handling, the Organization respects and guarantees to the User the possibility of submitting requests based on the following rights:

- confirmation of the existence of handling;
- data access;
- correction of incomplete, inaccurate or outdated data;
- anonymizing, blocking or deleting unnecessary and excessive data, as well as data handled in non-compliance with the law;
- data transfer to another service or product supplier, upon express request by the User;
- deletion of data handled with the consent of the User;
- obtaining information about public or private entities with which Bradesco shared its data;
- information about the possibility of the non consent, as well as about the consequences in case of such refusal;
- revocation of consent;
- review of decisions made solely on the basis of automated processing.

Part of the rights listed above may be exercised directly by you, user, through the management of registration information in our websites or APPs, while another part will depend on the submission of requests through our service channels or directly with those in charge of Data Protection (visit the website www.bradescoseguranca.com.br), for further evaluation and adoption of necessary measures.

The Organization will make all reasonable efforts to meet the requests made by the Data Subjects, in the shortest possible timeframe. However, justifiable factors may delay or prevent their prompt service, and, in the event of any delay, the Organization will provide the User with the necessary reasons.

Finally, the User must be aware that the request may be legally rejected, whether for formal reasons (such as his or her inability to prove his or her identity) or legal reasons (such as the request for deletion of data whose maintenance is handled to comply with a legal exercise of rights by the Organization), and, in the event of impossibility of meeting such requests, the Organization will present the User with reasonable justifications.
